

“I believe that patients, especially seniors, need a medical professional, just like a friend or therapist to listen to them and allow them to vent their concerns.”

About Hina Iqbal, MD

Dr. Hina Iqbal understands that providing care for the whole person includes their physical, emotional and social well-being. “I treat all my patients with compassion,” says Dr. Iqbal. “I believe that patients, especially seniors, need a medical professional, just like a friend or therapist to listen to them and allow them to vent their concerns. It puts them at ease and lets them feel like they can share anything with me. As I listen, I am better able to treat my patient's medical conditions and even address some of their social issues.”
