

“I have heard wonderful stories about people and their experiences. Understanding what their lives have been like is the first step to helping them be healthier.”

About Jonathan Flacker, MD, AGSF

Doctor Jonathan Flacker specializes in internal medicine and geriatric medicine. He is a member of the American College of Physicians and the American Geriatrics Society. He enjoys working with the senior population the most and his favorite part of being a doctor is learning about the patients he cares for.

“I have heard wonderful stories about people and their experiences,” said Dr. Flacker. “Understanding what their lives have been like is the first step to helping them be healthier.”
