“I enjoy learning from and listening to seniors. If it weren’t for them, we wouldn’t be here today.”

About Margaret Davies, FNP-BC

Margaret Davies' desire to help and care for others started very early. It led her to volunteer with a hospital at 12 years old and go on to work as an EMT before realizing that nursing was the perfect fit. “I love being there to help people feel better and improve their health,” says Margaret Davies, a board certified family nurse practitioner. Caring primarily for seniors in recent years, she adds, “I especially enjoy learning from and listening to seniors. If it weren’t for them, we wouldn’t be here today.”

Away from work, Margaret Davies likes to spend time with her three teenage girls, watch movies, read, travel, and work out. A fan of the outdoors, she also enjoys hiking, swimming, snorkeling, and snowmobiling.
