

“I empathetically listen to my patients’ concerns to fully understand their circumstances, which has helped me establish meaningful doctor-patient relationships.”

About Jairo Tejada, MD

Dr. Jairo Tejada feels a sincere “sense of happiness and satisfaction” when helping patients. His favorite part of being a physician is “improving the health of patients to keep them as functional as possible.” Dr. Tejada says he empathetically listens to his patients’ concerns to fully understand their circumstances, which has helped him “establish meaningful doctor-patient relationships.” He loves encouraging patients to be active in their care and enjoys serving the senior population. Dr. Tejada explains, “taking care of those who dedicated their lives to help us be where we are today is very satisfying.”

Dr. Tejada is passionate about photography and enjoys capturing photographs in his free time. He also likes dancing.
