

“Delivering the best care possible for our patients and providing their families with the peace of mind about their loved ones.”

About Fadi Hawawini, DO, CMD, MBA, CPE

Dr. Fadi Hawawini's favorite part of his profession is "being able to make a difference in people's lives and contribute positively to my society." He believes honesty and accountability are key in building strong relationships with patients. He loves caring for the senior population and "delivering the best care possible for our patients and providing their families with the peace of mind about their loved ones." To keep up with the latest medical advancements, he attends conferences, discusses with healthcare leaders, and stays involved in the medical community.

In his free time, Dr. Hawawini loves spending time with his wife and son. He especially enjoys watching his son play sports. He also likes staying up to date on world affairs.
