

“I enjoy working with the senior population and learn from their wisdom. I can see the benefits derived from good care.”

About Dana Harris, MSN, APRN, FNP

Dana Harris says she “became engrossed in the medical field” while working as a candy striper. Her favorite part of her profession is “forming close relationships with patients and families.” She strives to remain accessible and non-judgemental in her care. She enjoys working with the senior population and learning from their wisdom. “I can see the benefits derived from good care,” she says. She explains that her mother and “father-in-love” are living their lives to the fullest and “making the aging process look easy.” She vows to always treat patients with empathy and a smile.

When not with patients, Dana Harris enjoys spending time with her family and watching romantic comedies. She is also strong in her Christian faith.
