“It’s very important everyone feels they have a champion in healthcare.”

About Leenah Chughtai, MD

“I’ve always wanted to work in healthcare. Being able to work in a team with people I can call family while practicing my passion for helping others is what I’ve always seen myself doing,” Dr. Leenah Chughati says. She prioritizes communication in her practice and takes pride in advocating for her patients. “It’s very important everyone feels they have a champion in healthcare,” she explains. She values preventative care and explains that as “a perpetual student of medicine,” she likes to keep an “open mind.” She adds, “My door is always open!”

Dr. Chughtai enjoys spending time with family, playing with her cat, and exploring new foods spots in her free time. She also loves Lord of the Rings, Harry Potter, and interior designing.
