About Tania Modeliste, MSN, APRN, FNP-C

Tania “Tan” Modeliste first became interested in healthcare while watching a loved one receive care, comfort, and support from nurses. She explains that caring for the senior population has taught her a lot about “resilience, patience, and cherishing life’s moments.” She values authenticity and effective communication. She likes educating patients and creating individualized treatment plans. She enjoys empowering patients “by involving them in decisions” and always strives to validate their feelings.

Tan loves traveling with her husband and spending quality time with her family in her down time. She also likes gardening, enjoying nature, and bonding with her Yorkshire Terrier, named Bronx New Yorkie.
