

“I don’t just treat symptoms; I help patients understand their conditions and why following through matters.”

About Porscha J. Bailey, DPM

For Dr. Porscha J. Bailey, working in healthcare is an opportunity to help others in a meaningful way. She aims to create genuine, trusting relationships where patients feel empowered. She explains, “I use real-life examples and compassionate conversation to help them feel seen, valued, and motivated.” She adds, “I don’t just treat symptoms; I help patients understand their conditions and why following through matters.” She finds it “incredibly rewarding” to care for seniors. “They deserve time, patience, and thoughtful care, and I’m honored to be part of that support system,” she says.

In her free time, Porscha enjoys reading, staying active with Pilates and yoga, and traveling with friends and family.
