“[Dr. Elukeme ends each appointment by asking what else he can do] to improve patient experiences.”

About Henry Elukeme, MD

In addition to a lifelong passion for humanity, Dr. Henry Elukeme was inspired to pursue a career in healthcare by his grandfather. He explains, “My grandfather was the local healer in my village in Africa who provided for the sick.” Dr. Elukeme’s drive to care for the senior population grew while “working as a live-in caregiver” for seniors. He enjoys getting to know his patients, explaining that he uses “motivational interviews to gain insight” into his patients. He adds that he starts each appointment with a smile and ends each appointment by asking what else he can do “to improve patient experiences.”

In his down time, Dr. Elukeme enjoys sightseeing, hiking, reading, and spending quality time with his family.
