About Kirk Lee Bonner, MD

Dr. Kir Lee Bonner loves making a positive difference in people’s lives and learning from the wisdom of his senior patients. “I’ve been working as a doctor for many years and every work day brings me joy in helping patients avoid health problems as we all get older,” he says. He enjoys learning about his patients and building trusting relationships. “I ask about what makes them happy, gives joy, family, and activities,” he explains. He strives to help patients feel comfortable and believes in shared decision-making.

Dr. Bonner enjoys watercolor painting and helping his wife with her nonprofit that promotes New Orlean’s Spanish History. He is also a former ballet dancer and still dances nearly everyday for exercise.
