“My goal is to deliver the best quality services to high-risk populations in order to improve the quality of life for those in my community.”

About Laura Bateman, MD

As a physician, Dr. Laura Bateman strives to improve the overall health of her patients. “My goal is to deliver the best quality services to high-risk populations in order to improve the quality of life for those in my community,” she says. She recognizes the importance of getting to know her patients and understanding their concerns. “Every patient is unique and requires individualized care,” she explains. She strives to be “fully present during interactions” and takes a genuine interest in her patients’ lives. To build a strong, trusting relationship, she prioritizes “open communication, empathy, and active listening.”

In her free time, Dr. Bateman enjoys horseback riding, doing pilates, and cooking with her family.
